Notice

The International Association for the Exchange of Students for Technical Experience (IAESTE), established in the year 1948 in London, UK, with a membership of around 100+ countries, aims at students in higher education providing with technical experience relevant to their courses and is a source of cultural enrichment for trainees. Every year around 4000 students worldwide are exchanged through IAESTE. The Internship exchange is on 1:1 basis and is a paid practical experience in the field of student's study, connects professionally and is fully supported by a dedicated team to give all guidance to accomplish the international internship.

The IAESTE-India has been initiated this year after the National Conference held in October 2013 at Manipal University, Bangalore where SHIATS was represented by Mr. Stephen Das, Joint Director, Directorate of International Education & Training. IAESTE - India has submitted application for Associate membership with IAESTE i.s.b.l for acceptance at the General Conference being held in January 2014 at Quito, Ecuador.

SHIATS has joined the IAESTE-India and will be referred to as IAESTE India-SHIATS. The IAESTE-India-SHIATS will be operating under the Directorate of International Education and Training with Mr. Stephen Das, Joint Director, Directorate of International Education and Training as the faculty in-charge. The IAESTE India-SHIATS' Local Committee members will consist of six different portfolios held by students and will be catering to the different responsibilities of the Local Committee. These students in turn will be remunerated by the scheme Earn While You Learn scheme of the University. These students will be selected through a procedure and they will hold the office till they are students of SHIATS. Faculty of Engineering and Technology and Faculty of Science students, who possess a good command over English and are interested for paid International internship may register by completing the appropriate application form which will be submitted at the office of the IAESTE-India-SHIATS, DIET attaching a receipt of Rs.300/- from Finance Office after depositing the fees amount. The student applicant should have a valid passport or should apply for a new passport. After registration the IAESTE-India-SHIATS Local Committee will be assisting you with further information. The soft copy of the registration form will be made available online to enable you to fill the required data. Last date for submission of Registration fees and the form is 20th December 2013.
